

7TH ASIA PACIFICSTD AND INFECTIOUS DISEASES CONGRESS*OCTOBER 23-25, 2017 OSAKA, JAPAN*Hepatitis C virus testing and treatment among persons receiving buprenorphine in an office-based program for opioid use disorders in Nigeria*Abati A, Akinbade O and Samuel A

Lagos University Teaching Hospital, Nigeria

Biography

Adeyemi Abati is a medical consultant with ten years' experience in research, evaluation, teaching and administration both in hospital and education institutions. he has a passion for improving the health and wellbeing of the people .he obtained is MBBS at Lagos university teaching hospital in 2005 and later obtained is MSC in public health in 2007 and PHD in 2010 at the same institution .he has been mentoring young doctors since 2010 and act as a role model for junior consultant at Lagos university teaching hospital. He is the president of the association of medical consultant in Lagos Nigeria and he has contributed immensely to the general reduction of infectious disease in West Africa as a whole.

abati_adeyemi@yahoo.com

Notes: