

3rd Euro Nursing & Medicare Summit

July 27-29, 2015 Valencia, Spain

Needs of family of intensive care unit with patient

Zeynep Çiçek, Gülsen Kaptan and Aysun Perim
Istanbul Arel University, Turkey

Aim: To study is to determine the needs of families with patients in the intensive care unit.

Method: Study will be carried out in Istanbul Provincial District of private hospitals in the Flat relatives of hospitalized patients in intensive care units (n=250). Demographic questionnaire and Intensive Care of the Patient with family for family members in collecting the data will be used Needs Inventory: This inventory was created by researchers. The number of questions were 46. Questionnaire included: Patients' relatives, medical personnel, physical environment, individual needs, covers the psychological support needs etc. Data analysis with SPSS for Windows version 11.0 statistical program will be evaluated. Their caregivers participated in the survey, informed consent will be signed stating that they participate voluntarily paper. The realization of the work permit is taken from the ethics committee of Istanbul Arel University.

Notes: