Trinity stone healing therapy

Students will learn how energy passes through the Five Bodies that make up the Aura and how the Soul Coding of The Oneness is constantly causing shifts in the human body. No two people have the same reactions to experiences. With the use of Trinity Stone Healing Therapy made from different rocks from around the world, Dr Margaret's especially cut triangles of stone create an astounding change in humans when listening to various sounds that are associated with their lives. Chakras are transformed into vibrant reverberations that creates new cell structures and healing of the mind, body and spirit. She will demonstrate healing with the Triangles during this workshop.
