

2ND ADVANCED NURSING SCIENCE & PRACTICE

April 20-21, 2018 | Las Vegas, USA

Diann L Martin

American College of Education, USA

Advancing a successful career in nursing

This workshop will be an experiential approach to support nurses in both clinical practice and academics to identify and prioritize steps to achieve their ideal lives, both personally and professionally. Attendees will formulate five major priorities for achieving their life purpose and design a strategic attraction plan to aid in accomplishing this purpose. In addition, strategies for self branding and creating a professional profile will be presented. Make your life and career all that you want it to be. Nurses change lives; now it is time to change yours.

Biography

Diann Martin has completed her PhD in 1990 at Rush University in Chicago IL. She has been a Nurse since 1974 with a specialty in Home Health and Hospice. Since 2005, she has been an Academic Leader in Nursing programs nationwide and has held four positions as Dean and many online teaching assignments at BSN, MSN and PhD programs in Nursing. She is the best selling Author of the successful and conscious caregiver in Mastering the Art of Success published by Celebrity Press in July 2017. She is a certified success coach in the Jack Canfield Success Program and a Master Trainer in the Passion Test system helping people to identify and live their ideal lives. She has published three books on Nursing Practice and is a Member of the Center for Health Care Innovation.

diannmar@aol.com

Notes: