

Brief Interview with Dr. Jinfu Wang (Editor)

Journal of Transplantation Technologies & Research

1. How many years have you been practicing and/or performing research?

30 years.

2. What is the research topic you are working on now?

Human stem cells.

3. What makes an article top quality?

Proposal of experiment.

4. What are the qualities you look in an article?

Novelty.

5. Do you have any research funding (NIH or other national funding) now?

Yes, I have 5 national research grants funded from China now.

6. When did you become an editor of OMICS Journal?

2011.

7. What is your greatest career accomplishment?

I have sent human stem cells to the space by the satellite.

8. How does the research published percolate through to practitioners?

No ideal.

9. What is the purpose of serving as an editor?

It is an honor and an opportunity for mastering the advances in the scientific field.

10. Do you have any patents?

Yes, I have 12 patents for stem cells.

11. Have you contributed any editorials or papers (any types) to OMICS Journals in the past two years?

Yes, I have contributed an editorial to JTTR.

12. Do you plan to contribute any editorials or papers to OMICS Journals in the next year?

Yes, I have a plan.

13. Do you have any trouble with OMICS Journals in the past?

No.

14. Would you recommend OMICS to your friends or colleagues?

Yes, I am recommending OMICs to my colleagues.

15. How do you differentiate Journal of Transplantation Technologies & Research with other journals in the field?

Journal of Transplantation Technologies & Research should be a journal for clinicians mainly.