Why to attend?

In early days, asthma is considered only as a genetic disorder and allergy caused due to some natural triggers like dust, pollen and roaches but the modern age has added several triggers (mainly environmental pollution like gases, fumes, smoking etc.), which cause asthma and allergic reaction. Even though our own immune system supports our body with antibodies; a regular exposure to environmental triggers at our job will surely cause asthma and allergic reaction. So we are inviting environmental research scholars with a research paper, to control the pollution and toxic substance and medical professionals, to come with a research article to cure asthma and allergy by increasing the immunity and also the pharmaceutical professionals, to come up with a new dosage form or new equipment to cure asthma and allergy.
