

Conference Announcement of World Congress on Traditional Medicine scheduled on 2020 at Germany

Young-Ji Shiao,

National Research Institute of Chinese Medicine, Taiwan, E-mail: young.shiao@gmail.com

Traditional Medicine aims to bring together the global leading educational scientists, researchers and research students, to exchange and share their experiences and research results about all the aspects of traditional and alternative medicine. This conference is focusing on the theme “Practices to cure wounds and illness by healing from power of herbs and incantation”. The event is hosted around the theme “Practices to cure wounds and illness by healing from power of herbs and incantation” with the aim to bring together audience of Ayurveda practitioners, other researchers in the field of herbal and traditional medicine, pharmacognosy, phytomedicine through the topics, engage participants in debate, and facilitate mutual understanding. The goal of the event is to provide a place for academicians and professionals with the interests related to herbal and traditional medicine to meet and interact with members inside and outside their own methods.

World Congress on Traditional & Complimentary Medicine during September 25-26, 2020 at Berlin, Germany. Berlin is the capital and the largest city of Germany as well as one of its 16 constituent states. With a population of approximately 3.7 million, Berlin is the most populous city proper and the sixth most populous urban area in the European Union. Located in north eastern Germany on the banks of the rivers Spree and Havel, it is the Centre of the Berlin-Brandenburg Metropolitan Region, which has roughly 6 million residents from more than 180 nations. Traditional Medicine aims to bring together the global leading educational scientists, researchers and research students, to exchange and share their experiences and research results about all the aspects of traditional and alternative medicine. The event is open for all the doctors, acupuncturists, herbalists, natural therapists, alternative and complementary medicine practitioners, Ayurveda practitioners, other researchers in the field of herbal and traditional medicine, pharmacognosy, phytomedicine, holistic, people who believe in natural remedies to explore their research and share their knowledge, help with case studies and other practices of natural medicine.

The OCM members including Young-Ji Shiao, National Research Institute of Chinese Medicine, Taiwan, T R L Peiris, General Sir John Kotelawala Defense University, Sri Lanka, and Mridu Sharma, Smt. Urmila Devi Ayurvedic College Hoshiarpur, India, it will expect to meet at with the theme to inspire the number of research and look forward to discussing ideas, findings in this International Academic Forum.

The market analysis drives for global Traditional medicine is growing rapid aging population, increase of consumer awareness, less or no side effects, supplying innovations, release of Current Good Manufacturing Practices (CGMP) for dietary supplements by FDA. As per WHO estimation, around 80% of population from most of Asian and African countries depends on the traditional medicine for primary health care. Other factors are escalating prices, health budgets calculations of modern medicinal system that has more consumers towards the cost-effective, economical and safe herbal medicine systems. Considering all these factors the market for Traditional medicine is expected to reach $ 115 billion by the end of 2023, this market is projected to reach a growth of CAGR of ~7.2 % during 2017-2023.

Top Traditional Medicine Conferences going to be held during January 2020 to December 2020 at various cities in Europe (Berlin, London, Barcelona, Madrid, Valencia, Rome, Zurich, Dublin and in various cities....!!!

Cristina Watson

Program Director | Traditional Med 2020

Send a mail to traditionalmedicine@conferencesint.com

Phone no: +448000148923