

Editor Note for Regular issue release of Epilepsy Journal

Without continual growth and progress, such words as improvement, achievement, and success have no meaning. Epilepsy Journal (ISSN: 2472-0895) is growing continuously. It is our pleasure to announce that during year 2020, all issues of volume 6 were published online on time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

All published articles of this journal are included in the indexing and abstracting coverage of Index Copernicus, Google Scholar, Sherpa Romeo, Access to Global Online Research in Agriculture (AGORA), RefSeek, Directory of Research Journal Indexing (DRJI), Hamdard University, EBSCO A-Z, OCLC- WorldCat, SWB online catalog, Publons, authors having NIH grant were submitted to PubMed.

During the calendar year 2019, ELJ received a total of 5 papers; during 2019 around 5 were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. In the 4 issues of Volume 6 published during the year 2019, a total of 4 articles were published (at an average of 2 articles per issue) of which, articles were published from authors all around the world. Average publication lag time of an article was further reduced to 2-3 weeks.

Epilepsy Journal also announces its new association with HILARIS publishing group for Archiving, Journal maintenance, financial purpose and support. Journal will be running its website <https://www.hilarispublisher.com/epilepsy/archive.html> parallel for Editorial and review work process so as to maintain its highest standard of scientific work.
