Archives of Surgical Oncology (ASO) is an international peer-reviewed journal which believes to promote and publishes novel findings in the subject area of different types of cancer and its treatment like, Bile Duct Oncology, Brain Tumor Surgery, Colorectal Surgery, Gall Bladder Oncology, Gastric Cancer Surgery, Prostate Oncology, Radical Prostatectomy, Thoracic Oncology, Veterinary Surgical Oncology, Liver Oncology, Melanoma Surgery, Neuro-Oncology etc.

Surgical oncology is one of the important classifications included in the journal. Surgical oncology is the branch of surgery which focuses on the surgical management of cancer. Archives of Surgical Oncology publishes articles related to surgical oncology and its allied subjects such as epidemiology, cancer research, biomarkers, prevention, pathology, radiology, cancer treatment, clinical trials, multimodality treatment and molecular biology. A journal is a periodical publication intended to further progress of science, usually by reporting new research. Most journals are highly specialized, although some of the oldest journals publish articles, reviews, editorials, short communications, letters, and scientific papers across a wide range of scientific fields. Journals contain articles that peer reviewed, in an attempt to ensure that articles meet the journal's standards of quality, and scientific validity. Each such journal article becomes part of the permanent scientific record.

I am pleased to announce that, all issues of volume 5 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online during the year.

Archives of Surgical Oncology during this year also brought out a conference entitled Oncology 2020 in Paris, which consisted of ~ 30 abstracts. During the period of 2015-2019, ASO received a total of 101 manuscripts out of which 37 articles (62%) were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process. During in this period around 37 articles were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. Totally 5 Volumes published during this period of time, a total of 37 articles were published (at an average of 4 articles per issue) of which, articles were published from authors all around the world. Globally articles have been accessed by the research scientists and also cited.

During the period of 2015-2019, a total of Two Editors, seven Reviewers joined the board of ASO and contributed their valuable services towards contribution as well as publication of articles, and their valuable reviewer comments will be beneficial to publish quality of article in the Journal.

Archives of Surgical Oncology also announce its new association with Hilaris Publishing Group for Archiving, Journal maintenance, financial purpose and support. However the journal will be running its original website <https://www.hilarispublisher.com/surgicaloncology.html> parallel for Editorial and review work process so as to maintain its highest standard of scientific work.

Authors are cordially invited to submit their current research activities and outcomes in the form of any article type of science communication such as original research, review, expert opinion, commentary, short note communication to our Journal.

Manuscripts can be submitted online via Editorial Tracking System or as an E-mail attachment to the surgicaloncology@clinicalmedicaljournals.com ASO is using Online Review and Editorial Tracking Systems for quality review process and the authors can submit manuscripts and track their progress.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Douglas P. Malinowski during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant, in bringing out issues of ASO in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of ASO, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of ASO and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 5 of ASO in scheduled time.
