Editorial Note

The Journal of Molecular and Genetic medicine gives you continuous coverage of all genetic and molecular aspects of medicine as well as in-depth documentation of genetic analysis within the current context of genotype/ phenotype correlations. Integrative medicine can help people with persistent pain, cancer, chronic fatigue and many other conditions better manage their symptoms and improve their quality of life by reducing fatigue, pain and anxiety.

The Journal's main purpose is to report original research, review and case reports in the following areas but is not limited to these topics.

COVID-19 affects different people in different ways. Most infected people will develop mild to moderate illness and recover without hospitalization. Most common symptoms are fever, dry cough, tiredness. Less common symptoms are aches and pains, sore throat, diarrhoea, conjunctivitis, headache, loss of taste or smell, a rash on skin, or discolouration of fingers or toes. Serious symptoms are difficulty breathing or shortness of breath, chest pain or pressure, loss of speech or movement.

Journal of Molecular and Genetic Medicine main aim is to facilitate scientific communication in a clear, concise and objective manner, while striving to provide prompt publication of original works of high standard quality.

All published articles of this journal are included in the indexing and abstracting coverage of Index Copernicus, Google Scholar, Cite Factor, Sherpa Romeo, Genamics JournalSeek, Academic Keys CiteFactor, Ulrich's Periodicals Directory, Electronic Journals Library RefSeek, Hamdard University, EBSCO A-Z, Directory of Abstract Indexing for Journals, OCLC- WorldCat, Proquest Summons, ROAD, Virtual Library of Biology (vifabio), Publons Studies receiving funding from a funding organization that is included on the list of PMC and Research Funder Policies or authors having NIH grant were submitted to PubMed.

Reasons to publish in Journal of Molecular and Genetic Medicine

1. High quality in-house copyediting to ensure high standards of communication.
2. High visibility with and international readership in relevant fields of research
3. Constructive and efficient peer review.
4. Included in all major bibliographic databases
5. Articles will be freely available.
6. Availability of immediate open access of all articles.

I would also like to congratulate all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of Journal of Molecular and Genetic Medicine for their immense support to bring out the Volume 15 Issue 3 grand issue release of Journal of Molecular and Genetic Medicine.
