I am delighted to introduce the Journal of Environmental Hazards which was inaugurated in the year 2017 and has continued publishing successfully with 3 volumes in 2019. Past the Journal’s inception, around 30 articles have been published with a broad scope, encompassing all areas of pollution, transport and fate of pollutants in the environment, heavy metals and organic compounds in the environment, industrial ecology, physical hazards, biological hazards, chemical hazards, planetary hazards, hazardous waste management, bioremediation of contaminated sites, deforestation, global warming, overpopulation, ecological and human risk assessment, environmental impact assessment, improved energy management, physical alteration of the natural environment, and improper management of human waste.

Journal is determined to publish up-to-date, high-quality and original research papers alongside relevant and insightful reviews and short communications, wherein the latter aspires to be vibrant, engaging and easily accessible, simultaneously obligatory and challenging. On a brighter note, the journal releases five issues per volume and each issue consists of five varied papers summing theoretical and methodological research papers, encouraging critical review papers and disciplined short communications. All types of papers are subjected to single-blinded peer review process. JEH was established with a vision of supporting and promoting research in Environmental Issues from across the world. We are looking to expand our panel of reviewers and editorial board from across the various sub-specialties within the research area.

Needless to say that journal has pertained its prime position only through the rigorous and meticulous efforts made by our Editorial and Reviewer panel, I am tremendously thankful to the group of editors including Weeberb Joao Requia, Samy Ponnusamy, Divya Pandey, Guohong Qiu, Karen Poon, Fatih Deniz, Renzhi Liu, Rajib Biswas, Jubhar Christian Mangimbulude, Mohsen Faizi, Iyad Ahmed Abboud, Theivasanthi Thirugnanasambandan, Kambiz Mokhtari for bestowing us with their consistent efforts and with immense gratitude, I would thank our reviewer panel for their continuous support and patience throughout the process.

In terms of Digital Marketing, our journal holds best viewership compared to the other platforms. Google Analytics has revealed an amazing statistics regarding the popularity of this journal. All through Feb 2019 - Nov 2019 there were 1000+ page views. The total numbers of returning visitors were 500. Moreover, globally 5,600+ new users have accessed the journal website for information on the journal and the published articles. The promotion of the individual author contributions is taken care of and hence the authors enjoy the reputation among global audience. Journal values the contributions by the authors and takes adequate measures in propagating and promoting their outcomes by permanently archiving as well.

Using digital marketing without a strategic approach is still commonplace. I’m sure many of the companies in this category are using digital media effectively and they could certainly be getting great results from their search, email or social media marketing. But the journal is equally sure that many are missing opportunities for better targeting or optimization. By using Twitter, linked in, Facebook and whatsapp, where we make a new platform for our researchers.
