Introduction

First part
Some facts about Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)

Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS) is a well-known disease caused by human immunodeficiency virus type 1, affects CD4+ T cells. AIDS is a sexually transmitted infection. Early symptoms of AIDS involved night sweats, unexplained weight loss, general lymphadenopathy, general malaise, and fatigue. AIDS principal finding is a severely defective immune system that is unable to guard the body against infection [1].

The first mentioned cases of Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome had recorded in June 5, 1981, at Morbidity and Mortality Weekly Report (MMWR). The story started as five men, all were active homosexual men, complained from Pneumocystis carinii pneumonia infection had nursed in Los Angeles hospitals. All of them had complicated infections with a severely defective immune system. Two of them died. Because all of them were homosexual men, scientists, and doctors proposed an association between homosexuality and disease gotten by sexual contact. Since then, AIDS grew into a major worldwide public health disaster and scientific challenge [2].

Second part
Some facts about Quran and Hadith

Quran {نآرقلا is the principal religious book of Islam. Quran is the finest classical Arabic text. Quran is prearranged in 114 chapters ({روس Surah are partitioned into verses or آيات تايآ). Quran organized the Muslim lifestyle as whole, clarified legal sexual rules, and banned illegal sex. حديث literally means talk. حديث indicates a record of the Arabic prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him) words or actions and his silent approval. Hadith is the backbone of Islamic civilization as a source for Islamic laws and guidance as a second source to that of the Quran. (The main support of hadith comes from the Quran which instructs Muslims to imitate Muhammad and follow his judgments) (An NUR 24:54, al-AHZAB 33:21) [3].

Who is responsible for decisions about new challenges in life topics?

Islamic authorities or the ulamaءاملع are the Islamic scientists and interpreters of Islamic laws, knowledge, and details. They are responsible for fatwa. A fatwa دودف is an Islamic opinion or Islamic law approved by a qualified Islamic authority to answer a new question asked by a judge, individual, or government. The fatwa based on the Sources of Islamic legislation: (must be in order). Fatwa had played a significant task over Islamic history to solve new challenges in life topics.

Fourth part

Some facts about Fahash (sins)

Fahash: it is an Arabic term from Quran words {ةشحاف. Fahisha is a Quran general term indicates any evil deeds, words, actions (not necessarily sexual) that makes Allah Huffy or angry on the human who did it. Fahisha caused by shahwat، that is another Quran term indicates desire [3].
Fahisha explained by Islamic authorities in two opinions:

- The first opinion is adultery fowd. (Do not draw near to fowd, for it is a Fahisha (indecency), and its way is evil) Sura Isra (17:32).
- The other opinion is every evil deed that justifies punishment such as killing, stoning, cutting a hand [4,5].

Fahisha may include all illegal Quran sex mentioned clearly or indirectly. Hadith may explain not legal sex directly or indirectly. Innovations in Islam (Bidah) or Heresy is any new occurrence of word, action, theory, or belief that is inversely against established Islamic beliefs. Or Heresy used in views opposed to accepted ideas. Islamic authorities analyze Heresy according to the Sources of Islamic legislation in order to reach a more acceptable and reasonable Islamic decision. Islamic authorities think AIDS directly mentioned in the Quran or indirectly mentioned under the quranic term Fahisha.

Fifth part

Some facts about illegal Islamic sex: Illegal Islamic sex had mentioned in the Quran in different quranic terms.

1. Zina (اَلْضُّبْحَة): It is a Quran term signifies illegal man-woman intercourse [8]. Zina can include adultery of married parties, sodomy, and fornication of unmarried parties, prostitution, incest, rape, and bestiality. The Quran disapproved of not authorized illegal intercourse, embracing one that recommends the punishment of one hundred lashes for Zina [7]. Quran recommends four witnesses to prove Zina. Zina fits the hadd crime that claimed to be Quran punishment. Lapidation or Stoning is a capital punishment where a group of Muslims publicly clarified throws a series of stones at a (married only) Muslim person (male or female) Confessed Zina until this person dies. Accusing Zina without presenting the required eyewitnesses is called qadhf (قَدْحَذ), which is itself a hadd crime [8,9].

2. Zina proceedings like eye sighting, watching, hearing, touching, kissing, hand Shaking between a man and a strange woman.

3. or Incest is sexual intercourse among the same family members or in the Quran banned close relatives and mentioned clearly in the Quran. (Forbidden for you are your mothers, your daughters, your sisters, your paternal aunts, your maternal aunts, your brother's daughters, your sister's daughters, your foster-mothers who nursed you, your sisters through nursing, your wives' mothers, and your stepdaughters in your guardianship—born of wives you have gone into—but if you have not gone into them, there is no blame on you. And the wives of your genetic sons, and marrying two sisters simultaneously. Except what is past. Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful) Sura an-Nisa' (4:23). Eye-sight between man and woman also banned, but only from man and woman in whom sexual intercourse is allowed or not banned. Banned eye-sight considered within Zinaproceedings [10,11].
