Editorial

Journal of Oral Health Case Report is a rapid peer reviewed Journal which have a key concerns over varied aspects of the Oral Health Practices. The journal main focus area is the publication of original research on various research formats like research articles, review articles, Commentaries, Shot Communication, and Letters to the Editor, while giving more attention to case reports. Almost issues of volume 05 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online during the year of 2019.

During the calendar year of 2019, JOHCR received a total of 6 manuscript, out of which 2 articles (33%) were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process. During 2019 around 4 articles were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. In the 3 issues of Volume 05 published during the year 2019, a total of 4 articles were published of which, articles were published from authors all around the world. Globally articles have been accessed by the research scientists and also cited.

As of year 2019, the journal board consists of a total of fourteen Editors and ten Reviewers who contributed their valuable services towards publication of articles. Along with that their valuable reviewer comments have also proven beneficial to the publish quality of article in the Journal.

We have already released the first issue of volume 6 in the current year 2020. As a proactive step we have also added a new portion in our journal which deals with the current coronavirus pandemic issue, in order to attract the authors/researchers to show interest in publishing their case reports and researches in our journal.

In the upcoming months of year 2020, we aim to publish articles which attempt to formulate various opinions, ideas, research, case report and evidences related to the oral health floating around the various authors and researcher across the globe. We also aim to boost the multidisciplinary research and promote knowledge and experience sharing. Apart from this we are also looking forward to promote wider scope of publication of research paper, articles and case studies related to this field.

In order to provide a greater scope to the promotion of this journal, we also look forward to take an advantage of the social media. By this means we will be able to reach out to a greater mass of authors/researchers. For achieving this we have already started posting various contents related to oral health through our LinkedIn, twitter, face book portals etc. Till now we are able to manage two posts per day in the topics like mouth cancer, dental surgery, parodontosis etc. and hoping the number of post per day to increase in the coming year.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of (Dr. Arunachalam kumar) during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant, in bringing out issues of JOHCR in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of JOHCR, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of JOHCR and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 6 of JOHCR in scheduled time.
